DAVIE DEFEATED.

His Meeting on Saturday Night a Grand Opposition Success.

Hon. Mr. Beaven Enthusiastically Received—Premier Robson Cornered.

The mass meeting held by the friends of Mr. Theo. Davie in the Victoria Theatre on Saturday evening was well attended and turned out to be one of the liveliest political gatherings which has been seen in Victoria for several campaigns. It was a pitched battle between the forces of Dr. Milne and Mr Davie, which raged with more or less excitement up to eleven o'clock and resulted in a manner by no means discouraging to the opposition. In fact the wily premier and his cunning attorney were considerably in the minority.

The opposition leader and his friends, who for their long and unselfish public services receive no reward, unless it be in sympathy from the public, found plenty who showed warm with and enthusiasm for them. The Hon. Provincial Secretary, accustomed to dominecring over his opponents, while the administrators of the legislature were at his back, found himself somewhat uncomfortable before an audience which believed in giving the weaker party fair play. It was a new kind of warfare for him to wage with his old political opponent; it was something unusual for him to have to accept favors from his opponents instead of having them thrown on his mercy. The meeting was of strong opposition proclivities. It was a demonstrative opposition too, as if it were anxious that no chance should be given for the insolent taunt to be cast upon it that it was "a sickly opposition."

When the curtain rose Wharf street was observed to have her usual representation upon the stage, forming a kind of gilt edged tableaux, intended to dazzle the ordinary, humble, everyday scrub of a voter. A few other pieces which went to make up the stage combination at the previous meeting were withdrawn, for what reason was not stated. Mr. T. J. Burnes was among the absent.

Hon. Dr. Helmcken on taking the chair made a few remarks, covering about the same ground as at the previous meeting. The venerable doctor worked over the old argument about the advantage to Victoria of having a man like Mr. Davie in the cabinet, which, with all due respect to him, is getting to be a very chestnutty chestnut. The chairman of course was cheered and heartily too.

Mr. Davie on coming forward received applause. He apologized for the formidable looking library on the floor and on the table and promised that his address should not be a dry one. He intended proving by undoubted authority, that every charge which had been made on the occasion of this canvass against the government or himself was utterly without foundation. It was a notable incident in Dr. Milne's meeting, that Hon. Mr. Beaven in his speech did not refer to a single authority, printed or written. His (Hon. Mr. Beaven's) was a poor sort of argument, based on verbal conversations in which he required his audience to accept all his statements without an atom of proof. He would not follow Mr. Beaven's example, but intended to deal solely in facts, and facts which he would prove conclusively. He would now read correspondence to show that he had invited Dr. Milne to attend this and the previous meeting, but that he could not get either Dr. Milne or his friends to come on the platform and discuss public questions with him.

At this point Mayor Grant rose in the audience and proceeded to inform Mr. Davie that he was laboring under a misapprehension if he imagined for a moment that the friends of Dr. Milne were afraid to meet him on the platform at any time. The supporters of Mr. Davie raised an uproar and shouted "sit down, sit down," and the friends of the mayor cheered. The latter finished what he had to say and then sat down.

Mr. Davie then read a letter which he had sent to Dr. Milne, regretting that any misunderstanding should have arisen through him (Dr. Milne) not being invited upon the platform and proposing that this should be a joint meeting. He also read the reply of Dr. Milne as follows:

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 16th, 1889.

DEAR SIR: I have received your letter of the 15th inst., and in reply beg to remind you that on the 12th instant I accepted your invitation to attend your meeting of Monday night. Being present that evening, I was not called upon by the chairman to speak, and in fact the length of your speech would not have afforded time for one to follow you, the audience being then tired out, and many of them having left. Under these circumstances I think it useless to attempt the holding of any joint meetings, and propose to address the electors at Philharmonic Hall on Tuesday evening next.

I remain, yours truly,

G. L. MILNE.

Mr. Davie then proceeded: This will show you that neither Dr. Milne nor any of his friends are disposed to discuss the matters now before us on their merits. I am now going to prove untrue every charge made against me at their meeting by Dr. Milne and his supporters. In their newspapers they say that I am an enemy to the system of public education, and wish to inaugurate a system of separate schools. Mr. Davie is reported in the Colonist as having said: To the discredit of the opposition it is to be said that they are the first to raise a sectarian or denominational cry in the political history of the province. Such a thing has never been done before, and I hope that it will be many long years before it is again. Mr. Fell the other evening said that I should deny this assertion. I will, and I will prove my denial. I will point you to my record in the house during the last seven years. Can you point to an action, to a word, or even a whisper that would lead anyone to accuse me of favoring anything in the way of a separate or denominational school system? Is it likely that, having an unblemished record in this respect of seven years, I would throw it away for one brief session, the eighth in my political career? Will you believe, after looking at my record, unblemished for those seven years, that I am going to throw away my political reputation for the sake of the few months which must elapse before I would have to again come before the people, even if re-elected now? [Applause.] Neither in public or in private have I ever been in any way an enemy to free education. This I will show you by my record in the past.

Mr. Davie proceeded to refute the statements that the educational department was merely a political machine. Under the act of 1876, passed by the Elliott administration, the authorities consisted of a board of education composed of six members appointed by the government, a superintendent of education, also appointed by the government, and three trustees, elected by the people. The board, which meant the government, had the power to open and close the schools, give certificates to teachers, and generally to superintend matters; the trustees held the property of the school in trust and the superintendent was the executive officer. A change of government took place in 1878, and Mr. Beaven was a prominent member of the new order of things, passing a new school act in 1879. To no purpose, said he, comparing the two acts except to say that under the latter system the board of education was abolished. He contended that the Beaven government had the same power to cancel the certificates of teachers as the present one, and the fact that several lapsed certificates were cancelled was used as evidence of that power being in their hands. Mr. Davie also referred at length to the act passed by the Beaven government which deprived teachers of the right to vote under the same act as the employees of the government offices were deprived of a vote at the provincial elections. The charge made against Dr. Milne of recommending the imposition of a special school tax on the city was repeated and reports read which appeared to substantiate that statement. During the election campaign of 1886, Mr. Beaven unfairly enough tried to represent me at the meetings as having voted to impose the fee because I had voted for the second reading although with the express restriction against the fee.

That's an example of Mr. Beaven's politics. He is a better politician than I am. (Loud applause). They say that I want to be made attorney-general for a stepping stone to the Supreme Court bench. If I did, there would be nothing dishonorable in my ambition. (Cheers). However, I have no such thought. My age is 37, and judges are not made at that age. If in 20 years hence I am still alive and as prosperous as now in my profession, I may look forward to repose upon the bench. It by no means follows that the position of attorney-general entitles to a judgeship. As for going to Lillooet, if he were defeated, he would not do it.

Hon. Mr. Robson denied that the school system was made a political machine. This was the first occasion, in his recollection, that the religious cry and the separate school cry had been raised in this province, and the responsibility of doing so rests with the opposition. It had been charged that there was a conspiracy to break up our splendid school system introducing separate schools, and that Hon. Mr. Davie was in the conspiracy. He could assure the audience that the accusation was utterly false. The tactics of the opposition during the present contest had not been very creditable. Their "plan campaign" was to villify the government, to keep on repeating falsehoods with the hope of making some dirt stick. For himself he might say he was personally indebted to the abuse of the opposition for having attained to his present proud position. A great many charges had been made against him but not one of them were specific. The TIMES once made a specific charge but it took it all back. The Guardian which copied the item did not apologize and was mulcted. He denied that he was an enemy to Victoria. He would be unworthy of the position of premier if he did not rise above sectionalism. The government had notwithstanding exchange the lands in Peace river and it was heartily in favor of the construction of the Canadian Western. He hoped the electors would see through the subterfuges of the opposition and that they would recognize the advantage of having Mr. Davie in the cabinet.

Hon. Mr. Robson having finished speaking, Mr. Alex Wilson rose in the audience and said, "I would like to ask Mr. Robson one question."

Hon. Mr. Robson came forward rather reluctantly.

Mr. Wilson.—Are you personally in favor of the construction of the Canada Western Railway?

Hon. Mr. Robson.—It's none of your business whether I am or not.

Mr. Robson was about to sit down, but his answer was followed by groans and cries of "Answer him, answer him."

Mr. Wilson.—I will ask the question again through the chairman: "Is Mr. Robson personally in favor of the construction of the Canada Western?"

Hon. Mr. Robson.—The cabinet are in favor of it.

Mr. Wilson.—That is not answering my question. I asked a plain question, and I want a plain answer. "Are you personally in favor of the construction of the Canada Western?"

Hon. Mr. Robson.—I say it was the policy of the previous government, and it is the policy of the present one also.

Mr. Wilson.—Behold! "Honest John," as usual. (Loud uproar, cheers, and general pandemonium, lasting for nearly a minute.

Hon. Mr. Beaven, from the audience, asked the chairman if he understood Mr. Davie correctly in saying that none of the opposition had the courage to meet him on the platform and discuss political issues?

Cries of "platform, platform!"

Mr. Beaven then advanced to the platform amid cheers that made the building ring. He said that he understood Mr. Davie to challenge the opposition to meet him on the platform and that he (Mr. Beaven) would address the meeting if Mr. Davie had no objection and the audience wished to hear him. (Cheers and cries of "go on.")

Mr. Davie stepped forward and said he had no objection to offer.

Mr. Beaven said this was a meeting called by Mr. Davie and that he would not have interfered if Mr. D. had not thrown down the gauntlet to the opposition. Mr. Davie had very positively stated that he would disprove all the charges made against him by the opposition, but instead of doing so he had ignominiously failed and he had put in the evening in putting up men of straw and knocking them down again. (Applause.) Notably, the case of the school question. He (Mr. Beaven) had charged Mr. Davie in siding to impose an unjust contribution from the municipal revenue for paying teachers' salaries and for educating children outside the city limits, Mr. Davie had not attempted to refute that statement for the simple reason that he could not but had gone into the question of separate schools and the cancellation of teachers' certificates ten years ago which had nothing to do with the present issue. (Hear, hear.) Again, he (Mr. Beaven) had charged Mr. Davie with issuing an address on the railway question which might have any meaning or none at all. For instance, Mr. Davie said that he had joined the government on the understanding that another transcontinental railway should be a matter of government policy and that the resources of the province should be devoted to that policy as far as they legitimately could be. What did such a promise amount to? It might mean anything or nothing. But Mr. Robson, the Premier, had stated from this platform that the policy of this government respecting the Canada Western had not changed in any respect from that of the last government. This in itself was a contradiction to Mr. Davie for the policy of the last government towards the Canada Western was to aid it simply by a grant of 20,000 acres per mile. This statement of Mr. Robson's, coupled with his refusal to answer Mr. Wilson, must surely open the eyes of the electors of Victoria to the duplicity which is attempted upon them. (Applause.) Mr. Davie had certainly not contradicted any of these statements. He (M. Beaven) also charged him and Mr. Turner with being negligent of their duty in not providing in the charter of the railway that its terminus should be at Esquimalt or Victoria. This Mr. Davie had not denied, but had dealt largely on futures connected with the matter, which were immaterial. He (Mr. Beaven) had shown the electors when addressing them that the govern-

Fatal Accident at Shelbourne—Using a Razor—A Memorial Church.

THE TERRY TRAGEDY.

Deputy Sheriff Nagle Talks—Released from Jail.

San Francisco, Aug. 19.—A San Francisco newspaper man, who came down from Stockton this morning, said: "Last night at Stockton there was a good deal of talk about lynching Nagle. I heard one old fellow say in the office of the Evening Mail that Nagle would be lynched inside of a week. I hardly think anything like this would have occurred, but the action of the sheriff in removing the prisoner under cover of darkness was suggestive, to say the least." In the city prison this morning Nagle was asked, "Did you anticipate trouble at any time?" "I did not," he replied. "These fears that an attempt might be made to take me out of jail undoubtedly arose from the fact that the jailors would not allow anyone to see me outside of my attorneys."

THEIR PLEA.

The Johnstown Catastrophe Revived by a Plea of "Not Guilty."

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 19.—Knox and Reid, solicitors for the South Fork Fishing and Hunting Club, to-day filed a plea of not guilty in the case of Nancy W. Little and children against the club This plea has the effect of placing the case upon the issue docket for trial. It will therefore be tried by a jury as soon as its turn comes up on the calendar. This plea of the club was a voluntary one, and the defendants do not generally plead until so ruled by the court. It shows that the club is no shirking the issue and is anxious to have the matter settled as soon as possible.

THE BLACK DIAMOND.

The Crew of the Sealer not Amenable to U. S. Laws.

Washington, Aug. 19—It is believed in official circles when President Harrison returned from Bar Harbor he would take some action in the case of the Black Diamond, but at the treasury department it is said that procedure in the matter has not yet been decided on. Treasury officials state that the captain and crew of the Black Diamond were not placed on parole by the captain of the Rush, in fact they refused to be disposed of in this way, and for this reason are not amenable to any civil law, national or international. In the cases of other seized sealers, the officers and crews were placed on parole and proceeded to the ports designated by their captors under prize crews without difficulty.

FROM THE NORTH.

Arrival of the Boscowitz with the Latest from the Canneries.

The steamer Barbara Boscowitz, Capt. Williams, arrived from the northern coast on Sunday morning, the round trip having been made in twelve days. The weather was fair on the trip, but nothing of moment transpired. In Johnson's straits the steamer Sardonyx was passed bound north. Nothing was seen of the steamer Princess Louise, which is now due.

The canneries had all closed down for the season excepting Spencer's cannery, at Alert Bay, which was still fishing and canning, having so far a pack of 5,000 cases. As to the pack of the various canneries the figures are not exactly known, and until something definite is given an average of 9,000 cases is considered near the mark. The largest pack is by the British American Co., the manager, Mr. Gus. Holmes, having put up 12,000 cases.

About 100 passengers, mostly Chinese and Indian canners, came down. For freight the steamer brought down 2,000 cases from McDowell's cannery at Alert Bay, 750 cases of the B. A. P. Co. brand, 1,000 cases empty tins, which will be forwarded to the Fraser river canneries, and a quantity of box lumber.

MEDICAL MEN.

A Large Party Arrive Last Night—Sight-Seeing To-Day.

Another contingent of medical gentlemen who have recently been in session at Banff, arrived in the city last night and registered at the various hotels. To-day in separate parties they visited the various points of interest in and about the city, and of course minutely inspected Chinatown. Among the visitors there are registered at the Driard the following: Dr. Spencer, Brandon; Dr. W. S. Muir, Truro, N. S.; Dr. F. W. Campbell, Dean of Bishop's College, Montreal, and editor of Canada Medical Record; Dr. J. A. Gordon, Quincy, Mass; Dr. E. P. Lochapelle, a professor in Laval University, Montreal; Dr. Armstrong, Montreal; Dr. Robertson, St. Andrew's Que; Dr. James Bell and Dr. McCallum, Montreal; Dr. Young, of the lunatic asylum; Dr. Wilkins, Montreal; Dr. Barker, Philadelphia; Dr. Stewart, Montreal; Dr. W. P. for Leeds, and wife; Dr. McLellan and wife, Trenton; Dr. and Mrs. Farley, Belleville; Dr. Stockwell and niece, Port Huron; Dr. Biddell, Crystal City; Dr. B. Lundy, Galt; Dr. J. W. To a representative of the TIMES several of the medical men spoke in high praise of Victoria, its situation, climate, and evident enterprise and solidity. Most of the visitors start upon the return journey to-morrow.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

The Amities Desire to Play the Townsends—Notes in General.

Manager Lange, of the Port Townsend baseball team, has been communicated with by the Amity club of this city, extending an invitation to the Townsends to play at the Caledonian grounds on the 7th of September, on the latter club's way to the Kamloops tournament.

LACROSSE.

The Victorias have not as yet received an answer from the Westminsters to play a game of lacrosse. The secretary wrote asking them to play Saturday, but no answer has come to hand. If the Westminsters mean business they ought to answer the correspondence from the Victorias.

CRICKET.

"C" Battery defeated Nanaimo at an uneventful game of cricket at Nanaimo last Saturday. The score, two innings each, was 60 to 57. The play throughout was very slow, owing to the wet and muddy ground. The highest individual score was made by Potts, of Nanaimo, being 23.

SULLIVAN'S SENTENCE.

After the facts of the Sullivan trial were in, counsel for the singer submitted a motion for a new trial, and asked an immediate decision without argument from counsel. The grounds of the motion were alleged to be that the court was prejudicial to the prisoner. Judge Terrell overruled the motion and sentenced Sullivan to one year's imprisonment. A motion for a new trial was at once entered by the champion's lawyer, and should it be overruled an appeal will be at once taken to the supreme court of the State, which will be determined at the October term.

WATSON CHALLENGED.

Tom Watson, the champion, has been challenged by a runner in the interior of California for a half-mile race for $500 a side. The champion is undecided what to do in the matter.

ROSS TEAM.

The Victoria hose team will practice to-night at 7:30 on Douglas street. This team is composed of the best runners in the city and is without doubt the fastest ever organized here.

LAWN TENNIS.

Sir,—Victorians are indebted to Major Wingfield, the inventor of lawn tennis, for a pleasurable week's tournament at Victoria Lawn Tennis Club's grounds on Belcher street. Though the weather put a damper on the finishing day's play, the games during the week were well worth patronizing. Up to a few years ago the sphere of out-door exercises for women was a very restricted one, and too great gratitude cannot be bestowed on the inventor of the game, which, whilst fulfilling all the necessities of out door exertion, yields an interest, and a pleasure to players, both good and indifferent. Professors of gymnastics do not now feel it incumbent on them to confine the exercises to a few calisthenic contortions, but put their fair pupils through the same courses as formerly considered only desirable for men. The result of the exercises cannot but be beneficial in every way, giving command of muscle and nerve, and inducing a strengthening of the body not otherwise possible. These desirable reforms in physical education are steadily gaining ground and many of those who have the care of girls who formerly looked with disapproval on anything which had the faintest taint of an approach to what they considered to be purely manly exercises, now enter enthusiastically into the question of bodily training and reap their reward in the increased health and vigor of their girls. The full and free development of the physique of young people of both sexes should undoubtedly be as largely attended to by parents and guardians as the education of the mental faculties. We have only to notice the springy step, clear voice and splendid health of the devotees of lawn tennis to be assured of the possibilities within the reach of most young people and of the fallacy of supposing that women must necessarily be delicate and more susceptible to ailments than men. Yours faithfully,

THE GATE KEEPER.

Our Grand Jury System.

A communication from "Reform" referring to Mr. Davie's attempt to abolish grand juries at the last session of the legislature, will be published to-morrow.

Beautiful Flowers.

Mr. J. W. Williams, floriculturist, whose garden is on the Gorge Road near the city, has presented us with a large and very handsome bouquet. Mr. Williams is an enthusiastic florist, and his gardens contain many choice flowers besides all the commoner kinds.

Vancouver School Board.

The school trustees of Vancouver have been at a deadlock for some time about the appointment of a teacher for one of the city schools, and repeated meetings only served to make the two sides more determined. It was finally proposed that all the members should resign and appeal to the electors, and on Saturday the board resigned in a body. An election will be held immediately.

Taxing Real Estate Agents.

The case of H. A. Jones as to the validity of By-Law No 19 imposing a tax of $50 per annum on real estate men, came up before Mr. Justice McCreight in Chambers at New Westminster last week. The decision turned on whether a real estate agent could be considered a merchant or trader. His Lordship decided that the word merchant or trader did not include a dealer in land and that the by-law in that respect was ultra vires of the Council of Vancouver.

Created a Disturbance.

Capt. Pamphlet, who created a disturbance at the meeting on Saturday night and was arrested and locked up, appeared in the police court this morning. He was remanded to Friday. Pamphlet resisted arrest and battered two police officers severely on the face for which he will be required to answer. He is out on $1000 bonds. Another of Mr. Davie's canvassers who raised a row at the meeting had his case attended to and will not require Judge Richards to prescribe for him.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

Mrs. Maybrick will be Pardoned—British Medical Association.

Action to be Taken in the Black Diamond Case—The Johnstown Disaster.

[By Postal Telegraph.]

Paris, Aug. 19.—Boulanger has issued a manifesto addressed to honest people, declaring that the senate and chamber procured his conviction by fraud and at means.

TO BE INCORPORATED.

London, Aug. 19.—It has been arranged to turn the house of A. S. Mitchell, the largest manufacturer of textile fabrics in the world, into an incorporated company.

DOCTORS IN COUNCIL.

The British Medical Association which has been in session here, closed its meeting Saturday. Among the Americans who participated in its work were Drs. Sexton, Hooks and Cutler of New York, and Dr. Blake of Boston. Dr. Sexton read a paper on "An operation for the cure of deafness and noises in the head." It excited the greatest interest. Dr. Blake submitted a paper on "The use of paper discs in the ear." Dr. Cutler discoursed on "Tuberculosis."

WILL ULTIMATELY BE PARDONED.

The belief is now almost general that Home Secretary Matthews will grant Mrs. Maybrick's reprieve and after reasonable lapse of time pardon her. This belief is based on the theory that an immediate pardon would cover Justice Stephen with confusion and in a great degree impair public confidence in jurors, whereas the suspension of the death sentence as a result of the deliberations in which Stephen took part would be eminently satisfactory to everybody, and the unfortunate woman's ultimate pardon would scarcely cause surprise.

QUEBEC DOTS.

Quebec, Aug. 19.—The Governor-General gives a grand ball at the Citadel this day week.

The local government will pay $40,000 to the Jesuits at the end of October.

The failure is announced of Bouey & Duperrel, saddlers, of this city, with liabilities of $10,000.

HAMILTON'S CARNIVAL.

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 19.—The great carnival opened to-day. Although but the first day the streets were thronged with people, and there is every indication that the demonstration will be a success. The programme for to-day is mainly aquatic, embracing yacht racing and illumination of the craft in the bay and lake. There will also be an illumination of the city.

AN INCREASE.

Ottawa, Aug. 19.—The department of finance has forwarded to the provincial treasurer of British Columbia a check for the amount due to that province for its share in the profit of landing of Chinamen. The amount shows a tremendous increase over last year, due, of course, to the exclusion act being in effect in the United States.

HOW MR. DAVIE WAS ELECTED

To THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—The public have perhaps forgotten how Mr. Davie secured his return here last election. Mr. Davie was returned by "plumpers." Instead of having his friends vote the whole ticket, as the friends of Messrs. Prior, Turner and Duck did, some twenty of them "plumped for Davie" and in this way Mr. Duck was counted out. We all knew pretty well who the plumpers were and how interested the same persuasion are in electing him now, but we also know how angry Mr. Duck's supporters were over the breach of good faith, because they can't have easily elected their man had they played the same trick.

THE CHIEF JUSTICESHIP.

DON CÆSAR DAVIE put away the Chief Justiceship last Saturday night, much as the original CÆSAR put away the crown which was offered him by ANTONY. He spoke of his youth, of his ambition, and of the improbability of Sir JOHN selecting a man so young in the legal profession as himself for the Chief Justiceship. Mr. DAVIE, however, failed to say he would not take the billet if it was offered him. Now, we should say that Mr. DAVIE would be very foolish to reject the Chief Justiceship if it was offered him. Outside of mere riches it is the pole star of the legal profession, and possesses social advantages not within the reach of every politician. In this matter, though, as in the sectarian school business, Mr. DAVIE leaves a loop-hole for himself. He does not say, considering my youth, inexperience and ambition, I decline the Chief Justiceship. Oh no! He leaves himself open to proposals. He leaves himself open to change his mind just as the Premier does in railway matters. As a "dispassionate spectator," Mr. DAVIE is on a par with the rest of the government. Heaven help the government which when called on dare not stand by their own professions, and which uses the English language only to hide their venal instincts!

MR. DAVIE'S MEETING.

If there is any one thing the government as represented in Mr. DAVIE and Mr. ROBSON can't do, it is to stand on their political legs in debate with Mr. BEAVEN. The latter gentleman is too heavy a gun for Messrs. DAVIE and ROBSON. Mr. DAVIE in his speech last Saturday night dared the opposition to attempt a refutation of his arguments. Mr. BEAVEN accordingly, so soon as Mr. DAVIE had subsided, took the stand. He brushed away the DAVIEAN sophistry in a few words, and then he proceeded to impale that gentleman on the hook of class legislation in the matter of his failure to act on the petition of the coal miners, to the effect that Chinese labor under ground be prohibited by an act of parliament. "Hold," cried the Hon. THEO. DAVIE, "you are exceeding the limits of the debate. You were to discuss such questions as had been discussed already." Mr. BEAVEN replied that he thought it was competent to discuss anything in Mr. DAVIE's political career which went to show his unfitness for the Attorney-Generalship. This protest made it perfectly clear to the audience that Mr. DAVIE had been indiscreet in daring the opposition to deal with his legislative career, and when a little later Mr. BEAVEN described Mr. DAVIE as being in the habit of "making speeches one way and voting another," more cheers and more laughter followed. But the astonishing feature of the speeches on Saturday night was the failure of the government to support Mr. DAVIE's platform, the Canadian Western Railway. The audience expected to hear something emphatic on this point. They wanted to hear from the Premier, not an endorsement of the Canadian Western Railway as an institution, but an endorsement of Mr. DAVIE's railway platform. The Premier, however, failed to connect. Said he: "The policy of the last government was to encourage and promote the building of that railway and the policy of the present government was the same." Mr. ROBSON does not say that he and the cabinet endorse the railway policy of Mr. DAVIE—that Mr. DAVIE in enunciating a railway policy speaks the sentiments of the cabinet. This would be too explicit. Mr. Robson prefers the imperfect to the present tense in his endorsement of the Attorney-General, and it was no wonder, therefore, that an elector asked the Premier to be a little more explicit, to speak in the present tense, to say, in fact, whether he was privately in favor of the Canadian Western. The Premier replied that his private opinion in the matter was none of the electors' business. The Premier's private opinion on a private matter is indeed nobody's business, but the Premier's opinion in a public matter is indeed every elector's business, for anybody must apprehend that a policy not actuated by private convictions brands the possessor as tricky, as a man ready to trim his sails to any breeze whether in the public interest or not. Sir JOHN MACDONALD never would have answered an elector in a manner at once so brutal and impolitic, and it is sufficient to say that the Premier's brutal answer only served to show the wolf in sheep's clothing. This little break of the Premier's has cost Mr. DAVIE a hundred votes. Now, we urge in all candour, if such language, coming from the Premier, is not the very essence of equivocation. Mr. DAVIE's platform was unequivocally a railway platform, and we hold that unless the cabinet endorse him he might just as well have pronounced in favor of female suffrage. It is due to Mr. DAVIE to relieve him of the charge of bringing forward a fictitious platform, that the government endorse him and it is due to the public to relieve it from doubt and apprehension that the government unequivocally and ingenuously endorse the Canadian Western Railway. Will Victoria endorse Mr. DAVIE under such circumstances? Will Victoria run counter to her better sense and practically endorse the double game the cabinet is now playing? We can inform the Hon. JOHN ROBSON that unless he is prepared to endorse straight up-and-up, and to the satisfaction of the electors, the Canadian Western Railway, the Hon. THEO. DAVIE will be retired to private life.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

Mr. DAVIE in his recent speech raised the separate school question, a question quite as superfluous as a political measure as his bogus railway manifesto. Now, we distinctly, on behalf of THE TIMES, deprecate the discussion of sectarian schools in conjunction with this election, and we charge Mr. DAVIE and the Premier with gratuitously introducing the subject. This is a question whose discussion must be postponed in this province until there is a well defined movement on foot looking to the operation of schools under denominational auspices. Since, however, Mr. DAVIE and the Premier have taken the pains to put themselves on record in the matter, it may not be inopportune for us to remark that Mr. DAVIE did not state that it was his private conviction that the schools should not be segregated. Mr. DAVIE simply alleged that he would not be likely to support denominational schools at the expense of political death. We quote his exact words: "Will you believe, looking at my record untarnished for seven years, that I am going to throw away my political reputation for the sake of the few months that must elapse before I would have to again come before the people." It will be seen from this that Mr. DAVIE rests his opposition to denominational schools solely on political reasons. It is not a question of conscience with him, this school business. He proposes to sacrifice his church and his conscience that he may remain politically popular. And so it logically follows that whenever Mr. DAVIE thinks he is politically safe in advocating denominational schools he will do so. Mr. DAVIE has given himself away again. He has no conscience, and like the Premier has no private convictions. We should suppose that Dr. HELMCKEN would blush at the thought of the fulsome rant he uttered over a man who distinctly avows himself the slave of political necessity.

THE FINANCE MINISTER.

Relative to the failure of the Premier to endorse Mr. DAVIE's railway platform, we may say that although the Finance Minister made a speech he omitted to state whether he was in favor of the Canadian Western Railway or not. The Finance Minister shied away from this unpleasant subject to finance and the collection of the revenue, boasting that it cost less now to collect the revenue than during the BEAVEN administration. The Finance Minister seems to have forgotten that in proportion as revenue increases the cost of collecting it decreases. If the Finance Minister has a bill in Vancouver that he wishes to collect, and he has to send an agent to collect it, the cost of collecting half a dozen bills would be no greater. Nobody understands this principle better than the Finance Minister, and yet he had the assurance to undertake to make political capital out of a matter which every business man knows is false on the face of it. But this is not the question. The Hon. THEO. DAVIE has enunciated a railway platform and the people of Victoria want the cabinet to endorse it as a matter of good faith, for they realize that Mr. DAVIE, as the only railway man in the cabinet, is a nonentity. Notwithstanding, however, the palpable necessity of endorsing Mr. DAVIE, the Finance Minister distinctly evaded it by discussing irrelevant subjects. Was the election to be a general one, the Finance Minister's speech would have been proper enough. Under the circumstances it was improper and only confirms the charge of THE TIMES that the cabinet dare not categorically endorse the Attorney-General's railway policy.

THAT OMISSION.

The fact that the Canadian Western Railway bill was a private measure does not absolve Mr. DAVIE nor the government for failing to have the clause inserted in it, making Victoria or Esquimalt the terminus of the road. If it was an oversight on the part of the government, why did not the government so soon as Mr. BEAVEN pointed out the omission take advantage of it, and thus demonstrate beyond cavil that they had a lively sense of the interests of Victoria at heart. But, says the Attorney-General, the gentleman who is to do all the legal business for this province, it (the clause) would have been inserted in the act granting the subsidy. This is a plausible explanation, but it is too thin—it is unbusiness like—it is not in accordance with the habits of legal gentlemen. It is diametrically opposed to the first principle of ordinary prudence and common sense. The true facts of the case seem to be (for we are not to suppose that the government would knowingly have omitted so important a clause from the railway charter) is that the government was too stupid to observe the omission in the bill, and that only for Mr. BEAVEN the bill would have become law without the stipulation as to the terminus. Now, if we are correct in these premises, and there is no doubt of it, are we not to presume that the government would have forgotten to insert the terminus stipulation in the subsidy bill? Those who forget in one instance are liable to forget in another instance, and the chances are if Mr. DAVIE is made Attorney-General, he will forget all about his railway platform. Taking the government on their own admissions, they are a forgetful and absent-minded lot. They never think of anything until Mr. BEAVEN points it out to them. The government's own arguments convict it of incompetency. Of two evils in the cabinet—knaves or fools—the former are preferable. There is honor among thieves. Boss TWEED robbed New York, but the city received some return. Fools, however, are neither profitable to themselves nor to the persons they represent.

THE SCHOOL ACT.

Will Mr. DAVIE please explain why the word "summarily" was introduced into the school act, and why so long as the word is present in the act the Superintendent of Education may not decapitate a pedagogue instanter, and for political reasons if need be? Remove the word "summarily" and the two acts are substantially alike in their operation. Now, what was the object in introducing the word "summarily." In the matter of a "summarily" dismissed school teacher appealing to the courts, Mr. DAVIE as a lawyer knows very well that not one teacher in a thousand would seek this channel for redress. In the very nature of the case, no matter how impartial the judge might be, the victim of "summary" dismissal would stand no show of receiving justice, and that from the fact that he who has the power to dismiss "summarily" can trump up any reason he may find convenient, and the judge is bound to accept it as bona fide. This provision that the "summarily" dismissed teacher may apply to the courts for redress is simply adding insult to injury, and Mr. DAVIE of all men is well aware of it. It is possible that Mr. DAVIE and the Premier can make their false pleading stick. We doubt it. These gentlemen kill themselves by their own arguments.

To the Electors of Victoria City District:—

GENTLEMEN:

In accepting a portfolio in the Government, my primary object is the construction of another trans-continental railroad, which, penetrating the northern part of British Columbia, and opening up the important district of Cariboo, will traverse Vancouver Island, making Esquimalt or Victoria its terminus.

It will be my endeavor, should you honor me with your confidence by re-electing me, to apply the resources of the country, so far as can be legitimately done, in furtherance of this project, which as a private member I strenuously advocated during the last session of the House.

It was upon the understanding that the Northern Railway should be a matter of Government policy, that I agreed to enter the cabinet.

I shall take the opportunity of entering into particulars at public meetings, which I intend to call for the purpose, during the course of the canvass.

I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
THEODORE DAVIE.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—James Shannon, Leaskdale, writes: "For many years my wife was troubled with chilblains, and could get no relief until about two years ago; she was then not able to walk, and the pain was so excruciating that she could not sleep at night. Your agent was then on his regular trip, and she asked him if he could cure her. He told her Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was a sure cure. She tried it, and judge of her astonishment when, in a few days the pain was all allayed and the foot restored to its natural condition. It is also the best remedy for burns and bruises I ever used."

—M. A. St. Mars, St. Boniface, Man., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a public benefit. It has done wonders here, and has cured myself of a bad cold in one day."

—Mr. Joab Scales, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

—That "tocsin of the soul, the dinner bell," as Byron calls it, suggests no pleasing reflection to the dyspeptic, bilious sufferer. He partakes, of course, but the subsequent torment is egregiously out of proportion to the quantity of food he eats, which lies undigested, a weight like lead in his unhappy stomach. There is a remedy, however, and its name is Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. No case is entirely hopeless.

—One trial of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will convince you that it has no equal as a worm medicine. Buy a bottle, and see if it does not please you.

—Hard and soft corns cannot withstand Holloway's Corn Cure; it is effectual every time. Get a bottle at once and be happy.

FROM OTTAWA.

British Columbia's Share of the Chinese Poll Tax.

Ottawa, Aug. 16.—The department of customs to-day forwarded to the provincial treasurer of British Columbia a cheque for $9,500, the province's share of Chinese poll tax for the last year. The total number who paid the tax was 708, twelve persons being exempt. The total revenue received was $38,000, the province receiving one-fourth. Comptroller Parmelee says no doubt many arrivals are entering the States surreptitiously.

NORTHERN NEWS.

The Latest in General from Alaska—Mining, Etc.

By the arrival of the Elder, Alaska advices up to Aug. 17th are to hand.

Application for a patent for the Mexican group of mines on Douglas island has been made.

Sylvester & Wilson are erecting a saw mill with a capacity of 25,000 feet a day at Wrangel.

A portion of the Basin road near Juneau was washed out by rain this side of the old Johnson mill, and it will require several days to repair the same.

The Alaska Export Company has made its first shipment of smoked halibut, consisting of a few cases as samples. This company has applied for a patent on the process of smoking.

Mrs Anna Dixon was recently bound over to await the action of the grand jury. Anna is accused of selling liquor to Indians, and not being able to furnish bonds she was sent to jail. She is the mother of two children.

A big strike has recently been made on the extension of the Blossom and Col. Sellers claims on Salmon creek. The ore carries large quantities of free gold, which can readily be seen with the eye, and assays quite high. The ledge is of good width and well defined and can be easily worked.

Word comes from Douglas island to the effect that all work on the Bear Nest property had been suspended, the cause, however, for this action has not as yet been definitely made known, but from indications it appears that the ledge does not exist as represented, as the tunnel has been run in far beyond the distance at which the ledge should have been tapped. The company operating this property have expended more than $200,000 and it appears that before expending more they propose to prospect it more thoroughly and a diamond drill will be brought into service for that purpose.

Immense Faucet Flows.

Mr. James Wilson, superintendent of C. P. R telegraph, has returned from an overland trip to Samish Lake, W. T., where he went for the purpose of personally inspecting the telegraph lines. He found that the fires have almost burned out for want of fuel to feed them and the telegraph service, which has suffered so greatly, will be restored within a few days and no further serious trouble is expected this year. The bush fires in Washington Territory have covered a wide extent of territory, and have done an immense amount of damage to valuable timber limits. It is not probable that the telegraph service will ever again be so badly demoralized by bush fires as it has been this summer.

Brewery Syndicate.

The English syndicate which has been buying breweries in the East and California, has offered $660,000 for Henry Weinhard's brewery in Portland. Weinhard has until September 1st to accept. One of the terms is that he shall continue in the management of the brewery for three years, to which he objects.

Having Their Potlatch.

One of those barbarous practices which is a relic of pagan superstition is going on just now at the Sarcee reserve, five or six miles south of this civilized and at least nominally christianized town. A considerable number of Calgarians have gone out to see the dance and several strangers from the far east who have read what doubtless seemed like a romance to them, about these dances, have also driven out to the reserve to witness the performance of torturing the would-be braves by lacerating their flesh and jerking out strips of flesh, the process of establishing an Indian's character as a "brave."—Calgary Herald.

A Serious Charge.

Considerable anxiety is felt by persons who have large quantities of cordwood piled on the Vancouver and Hastings roads, for the safety of their property, says the Columbian. The wood is principally cut by Chinamen, who contract to get it out at a certain sum per cord. Several fires have lately been started in the vicinity of these wood piles, and considerable damage has been done. Yesterday about 500 cords were burned on the Hastings road, from a fire supposed to be incendiary. It is the general opinion that the many fires that have been started during the past couple of weeks have not been accidental, but were incendiary, and for the purpose of driving the Chinese woodshoppers out of the business. The provincial authorities should endeavor to ferret out the fire bugs and give them the fullest punishment the law can inflict.

Looking backward—Year 2500.—Extract from Science.—Professor Huxley Darwin, who for some time has been investigating a singular twist to the wrist bones of American men and women of the year 1889, has made an interesting discovery. From some writings of that year he has learned that constant rainstorms prevailed in the summer, and that people were in the habit of carrying over their heads a remarkable structure known as an "umbrella." From this habit long continued, he suspects the wrist bones became deformed, as we now find them.

PROCLAMATION.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT CHANCELLOR Browning, Commissioner for the G. P. R., has this, the 26th day of July, 1889, issued a proclamation warning all persons from purchasing lots from Samuel Greer in Lot 236, Group One. Now, may it please Your Lordship, I have never offered for sale any lots in said Lot 236, for that would be deception on the public, as the highest legal authority in British Columbia pronounced the title to that lot strange—not one cent as consideration having been given. Now, if Your Lordship will other pray wig and recover from your deep sigh of Blackstone and the laws of estoppel, you will be able to see that the four Judges who threw your case out of Court last April were fully able to comprehend the difference between 225 and Pre-emption Record 1003, this being the Honourable Number of my land on Kootenay Bay. Come down and see us. I have a few corner lots (with a smattering of coal) yet left. I mean to sell, and the public will persist in buying them, notwithstanding Your Lordship's decision. Things will move just the same at English Bay.

All parties are hereby warned that Agnes and Smith have no title to Lot 236 till confirmed by the Legislature, and all sales will be void.

PREMIER GREENWAY.

The Manitoba Leader Visits Victoria—Politics Tabooed.

Hon. Thomas Greenway, Premier of Manitoba, arrived from the east last night and registered at the Clarence. To our representative he said the crops in Manitoba and the Northwest would be very abundant. When the conversation drifted towards politics, Mr. Greenway became reticent. He thought the proposed action of his government in regard to dual language would meet with favor with the English speaking people, who number 150,000 to 9,000 French. The French representative in the cabinet, Mr. Prendergast, had resigned since he left Manitoba. This is his first visit to the coast, and he is delighted with what he had seen. He will return to Winnipeg via the Sound and the Northern Pacific.

HON. JUSTICE DRAKE.

Mr. M. W. T. Drake Appointed to the Supreme Court Bench.

A telegram from Ottawa on Saturday announced the appointment of Mr. M. W. T. Drake to the Supreme Court Bench of this province. The information will not surprise our readers, as we have already intimated that Mr. Drake could have the position if he wished. We have already on several occasions expressed our opinion of Mr. Drake as a possible member of the judiciary, and it is needless to repeat them again. The appointment, all things considered, is the best that could be made. We do not think that it was necessary to make it, as four Supreme Court judges were enough; but since it has been made we can congratulate Mr. Drake upon his attainment to a position which, we feel convinced, he will do not a little to elevate and adorn. Mr. Drake is not a prejudiced partizan, and in professional and private life has won a reputation of which he may be justly proud.

OBITUARY.

The Silent Reaper Gathering in his Harvest.

Helen Dickson Pritchard, wife of E. Pritchard, a farmer living near the Royal Oak, Saanich road, died at St. Joseph's hospital this morning from old age. Deceased was 72 years of age and a native of Scotland. She had been married to Mr. Pritchard about two years before his death, previous to which she was known as Mrs. Luxton. The remains will be interred in the Saanich cemetery.

Mary Ann Stewart, wife of J. B. Stewart of Brandon, Manitoba, died at St. Joseph's hospital on Saturday. The remains were embalmed by Mr. Chas. Hayward and forwarded to Brandon by yesterday's steamer for interment at the home of her relatives.

The remains of a child, 8 months old, were brought over from Seattle on Saturday for interment. The child's parents are named Haughton, who had the body interred here as they intend residing here.

The Pianoforte.

Miss Laura M. Adams, teacher of pianoforte, 34 Cadboro Bay road.

The Final Rally.

The meeting to be held by Dr. Milne to-morrow evening in the Philharmonic Hall will be addressed by the candidates, himself, Messrs. Beaven, Mayor Grant and B. H. Wert. An interesting and lively meeting may be expected. Chair taken at 8 o'clock sharp.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the Cal. Fig Syrup Company.

Farewell Banquet.

Mr. H. V. Rudd, late teller of the Bank of B. C. at Nanaimo, has been transferred to the Kamloops branch of the bank. On Friday night last he was tendered a banquet by the leading citizens of Nanaimo, when an address was read and Mr. Rudd presented with a handsome gold watch guard, a token of esteem.

Bullet in the Air.

An individual named Steves, while under the influence of liquor on Saturday evening, discharged a pistol at the dinner table in the Colonial hotel, the ball going through the ceiling. Luckily nobody was hurt, but Steves was locked up in gaol till this morning, when he paid a fine of $5 and went his way.

Council Meeting.

The council held a special meeting at 4 p. m. to-day to take into consideration the late interview with Messrs. Pickering and Hill in regard to a system of sewerage. It was expected that a decisive understanding would be arrived at in respect to which was the more desirable of the two systems, the separate or combined.

Fast English Mail.

The English papers and letters of Saturday, the 3rd of August, were delivered here on Saturday morning, the 17th, but if the Islander had not been delayed by fog the mails would have been delivered on Friday night. We believe we are right in stating that this is the fastest trip on record, being just thirteen days from any part of Great Britain. The mails came by Cunard steamer and the C. P. Railway.

Rev. Talmage To-Night.

The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage will appear at the Victoria theatre this evening, speaking on the subject of "Big Blunders." The New York Independent has the following to say about the talented speaker: Mr. Talmage is a pulpit phenomenon. He is dramatic, and cannot describe without acting. He has a clear, incisive mind, a broad and genial humor, a kindly sympathy, a vivid imagination, vehement passion, and every blow tells.

Dust to Dust.

The remains of the late venerable George Stairs Brown were interred in Ross Bay cemetery yesterday afternoon. Services for the dead were conducted at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church by the Rev. P. McF. Macleod. A numerous assemblage of relatives and friends were in attendance, their last mark of esteem to the deceased's memory. The pall-bearers were D. W. Higgins, M.P.P., E. B. Marvin, John Teague, C. McKay Smith, D.G. Walker and Alex. Wilson.

Midnight Prowlers.

Mr. Hart, Bellot street, was awakened about 3 o'clock this morning, by hearing his yard gates slam. Looking out he saw seemingly a lad leaving his premises, who, on being hailed, threw himself on all fours in the grass and weeds in the street, and crawled off. Mr. Hart restrained himself from using a revolver, as he considered the lad must be half-witted from making so much noise when effecting his exit, but the gentleman's forbearance cannot be trusted if another midnight visit is intended.

School Teachers Promoted.

A special meeting of the board of school trustees was held in the city hall on Saturday night to consider appointments. Miss Lizzie Barron was promoted to Spring Ridge ward school, vice Miss M. V. Storey, resigned. Miss Keast, promoted to 4th division girls' school, vice Miss Barron. Miss Carmichael, promoted to 5th division girls' school, vice Miss Keast. Miss Robinson, promoted to 6th division girls' school, vice Miss Carmichael. Miss Munro, promoted from 8th division boys' school to 7th division girls' school, vice Miss Robinson. Miss Julia M. Bradley, appointed to 8th division boys' school, vice Miss Munro.

In Limbo.

A young man named Henry Benesch was arraigned in the police court to-day charged with passing a worthless cheque. The cheque was payable to himself, endorsed by himself, and in his own favor, and was for $25. The charge was made by Mons. Marbouef, of the Poodle Dog, where the young man passed the cheque. On presenting it at Garesche Green & Co's bank it was found to be worthless. Benesch is a dudish-looking young man wearing gold eye glasses and has been around town for six weeks as a book canvasser. He looked much depressed as he sat in the dock this morning. After taking evidence the case was remanded.

Mr. Eberts for Lillooet.

It is well understood now that Mr. D. M. Eberts, barrister, of this city, will be a candidate for the vacant seat in the district of Lillooet. Although generally a government supporter, yet Mr. Eberts is possessed of the qualities that might recommend him as a proper person for the position of Attorney General, and if elected for that district the government will, no doubt, in the event of Mr. Davie's defeat, which many of his supporters admit is a foregone conclusion, call upon Mr. Eberts to fill the position of Attorney General. It may be said that Mr. Eberts lacks legislative experience, but that is no good reason why he should not, as compared with Mr. Davie, fill that responsible seat in the cabinet in a satisfactory manner, as Mr. Davie has shown to the house and country that he is thoroughly unfitted to frame laws or understand legislative procedure.

THE HON. DEWDNEY'S VISIT.

Meeting Called by Mayor Grant to Consider a Plan of Reception.

A meeting was held at the City Hall this morning at 11 o'clock re the proposed visit to this city of the Hon. Edgar Dewdney, Minister of the Interior.

Mayor Grant was placed in the chair and Mr. J. L. Raymur appointed secretary.

On motion it was agreed to tender to the honorable gentleman a banquet.

The following committee, on motion, was appointed to carry out the foregoing desire: Mayor and Council, members of the House of Commons, Speaker Pooley, city members of the Local Legislature, President and Vice-President and Council of the Board of Trade, Messrs. R. E. Jackson, A. DeCosmos, R. Shakespeare, J. Braden, R. Finlayson, M. W. T. Drake, Q.C., W. F. Bullen, Jas. Dunsmuir, Alex. Dunsmuir, H. S. Mason, Jas. Angus, W. C. Ward, G. H. Barnes, F. H. Warlock, W. Wilson, Alex. Wilson, J. D. Pemberton, A. J. Langley, Thos. Shotbolt, H. E. Crossdale, Joshua Davies, H. F. Heisterman, S. F. Mills, D. M. Eberts, D. W. Higgins, M. P. P., H. D. Helmcken, W. J. Taylor, J. S. Yates, A. L. Belyea, C. Hayward, J. L. Raymur, ex-Mayor Fell, ex-Mayor Redfern, ex-Mayor Ritchet, Dr. Helmcken, Sr., Dr. Milne, Dr. Hannington.

Mayor Grant was requested to wire the Hon. E. Dewdney to ascertain if he will accept the proposed banquet, and if so, when.

On motion the committee is asked to meet at the City Hall to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

ment had decided it was impossible to insert such a provision in the bill, but that it had been inserted by himself, aided by his friends in the legislature, although characterized by Mr. Robson as "a sickly opposition, incapable of accomplishing any good." Mr. Davie had referred to a vote of his in 1886, on the question of imposing a fee on high school pupils and produced a speech which he delivered in opposition to the fee, whilst at the same time the journals of the house showed that he voted for the second reading of the bill. The difficulty with Mr. Davie is that he does not always vote in accordance with his speeches, and instead of being a political scholar of his (Mr. Beaven's), as he put it, he is a scholar of John Robson's, who on one occasion in the legislature spoke for three hours against a measure and then voted in favor of it. [Great laughter and cheers.]

Here one of Mr. Davie's supporters interrupted.

"As I was going to say when interrupted by one of Mr. Davie's paid agents," remarked Mr. Beaven (great laughter) "the proper test of a candidate's promises is to judge him by his conduct in the past. Mr. Davie came first before the electors seven years ago. At that time the great question agitating the electors was the Chinese question. The Walkem-Beaven government had passed bills attempting to restrict Chinese immigration. These had been tested in courts and declared ultra vires of the local legislature. Mr. Davie promised that if elected he would frame bills which unlike those of the Walkem government, would stand the test of the courts and of the minister of justice at Ottawa. He was elected. He passed two bills through the legislature. He, (Mr. Beaven), assisted him and voted for his measures. What was the result? One bill when it reached Ottawa was disallowed by the minister of justice, the other when tested in the courts was declared unconstitutional (hear, hear). You all remember the series of sad accidents at the Nanaimo collieries. Some of the miners at Nanaimo attributed these accidents to the employment of Chinese underground. Two years ago they petitioned the legislature to amend the Coal Mining Act so as to prevent Chinese from working underground, but to the eternal disgrace of the legislature they rejected the clause in toto, Mr. Davie and Mr. Robson being among its most prominent opponents. (Hear hear) He also posed on the hustings as the workingman's friend. What did he do last session? He supported a bill which enabled a justice of the peace to imprison a poor man for debt, and to put him to hard labor. [Hear, hear.] Mr. Beaven went on to show that the true interests of the community demanded that Mr. Davie should be rejected, thus giving a mortal stab to the Robson combination. He (Mr. Beaven) said, if you vote for Mr. Davie you support the Robson government, and Messrs Robson and Vernon are opposed to the construction of a transcontinental railway by the Bute Inlet route.

Hon. Mr. Robson (excitedly)—"I must check that statement on your lips." Mr. Robson continued to stand on the platform and to gesticulate to Mr. Beaven, but his words were inaudible, being drowned by cries of "sit down, sit down," etc., etc.

Order having been restored, Mr. Beaven said every member who was in the legislative assembly at the close of the last session heard the Honorable Mr. Dunsmuir, in one of the last speeches he made in the house, characterize the conduct of Mr. Robson, with reference to the Canada Western railway, as that of "duplicity."

Hon. Mr. Robson, again jumping up excitedly—"What is that you say, sir? Repeat that again if you dare!"

Mr. Beaven repeated again deliberately what he had just stated.

Mr. Robson gesticulated and shook his fist over the table at Mr. Beaven, evidently protesting that this was untrue, but he could not be heard.

Order again being restored Mr. Robson said that the only difference of opinion between himself and the late president of the council was that he (Mr. Robson) wanted the line started in three instead of four years.

Mr. Beaven—It is a well-known fact that both Mr. Robson and Mr. Vernon are in their hearts opposed to this railway.

Mr. Robson jumped up again but the uproar was so great that only those on the platform could hear him.

Mr. Beaven continued for a short time to address the electors, who listened to him with the closest attention, excepting when interrupted by Mr. Davie and some of his friends. The meeting was evidently two to one in favor of the opposition. Mr. Beaven resumed his seat among the audience amid another ringing round of applause.

Hon. J. H. Turner made a short but very fair speech from a party standpoint. When declaring against the opposition at one point a voice from the audience inquired if he had not "flopped." "Did you sell yourself for $2500?" was the question. Mr. Turner's principal argument was that the province was more prosperous now than ever and that the government was the cause of the greatly increased revenue.

The audience, to their credit, did not seem to take much stock in that kind of nonsense.

Mr. Davie made a few more remarks, and after a vote of thanks to the chairman the meeting adjourned.

To the Electors of the City of Victoria.

GENTLEMEN:—

In complying with the request of a number of the citizens of Victoria to stand for the seat now vacant in the Legislature, I do so believing that at no distant date questions will arise requiring careful consideration, and calm and just decision. Many of the late actions of the Provincial Government have not met with the approval of the majority of our citizens, notably the amendments to our school law. The amendment to our Public School Act of 1886, where it provides that the cities are called upon to pay the expenses of operating their schools, and also enacting that the cities shall pay one-third of the salaries of their teachers, is, I consider, a law unfair and unjust. If elected as your representative, I shall endorse the action of our city aldermen, in refusing to pay the expenses and portions of salaries demanded by the Government. I shall also, if elected, use my efforts to have the present School Act so amended as to eliminate many of its features, which I consider have been introduced to give power to the Government in matters which should be left in the hands of the Trustees—the proper representatives of the people in school matters. I shall always uphold our free and non-sectarian school system. As the School Act now stands it is in many respects merely a political machine.

I shall use my best endeavors to obtain a grant of land or money for the establishing of a University, to be erected and maintained in the City of Victoria, as it is time such an institution should be founded for the higher education of the young people of this province. Victoria being the capital, as well as having many natural advantages, is by far the most suitable place for such an important provincial institution.

I am in favor of subsidizing any railway asking reasonable aid, making Victoria its terminus. As the Canada Western Railway is now a matter of fact, by legislation passed last session, I shall, if returned, use my influence to have the same completed at an early a date as possible, with its terminus at Victoria or Esquimalt.

The land laws of our province should be carefully guarded; and I believe it is in our interest to conserve our timber lands, and that they should not be locked up in large tracts in the interest of speculators.

The development of the mineral wealth of this province requires our earnest attention. Legislation tending to this end will receive every assistance from me.

It will be my most earnest desire to have Victoria made as far as possible the point of arrival and departure for lines of steamers either from the Chinese seas or Australasia.

In a few days I hope to have the pleasure of addressing you on the various provincial questions. In the meantime I solicit your influence and votes. I am,

Yours respectfully,
G. L. MILNE
